PREFACE.

Alexander Bryan was a very leading, if not the leading spirit in Milford, Conn., at its first settlement in 1639. I am not his descendant and my interest in him is incidental.

The Bryans were very intimate with and connected with the Baldwins. On visiting England in 1870, and the old homes of the Baldwins, I found at Aylesbury at the church an engraving of which follows—the entry of the baptism of Alexander Bryan, thus by accident, connecting the family with its English origin.

Some years after I saw advertised in London the following deed and purchased it. The original is on a sheet of parchment twenty-six by fourteen and one-half inches.

Alexander Bryan married in England, Anne Baldwin, daughter of Robert and Joan Baldwin, in March, 160 $\frac{1}{2}$, of North Church, Hertfordshire, where Robert died that month, a young married man, leaving this one child.

Robert Baldwin was son of Henry and Alice (King) Baldwin of Dundridge, distance a little over two miles from North Church, and in the parish of Aston Clinton, Buckinghamshire and adjoining Aylesbury.

By Henry's will, dated 1599, Robert had lands in Flaunden, Hempstead, and elsewhere in Herts. Robert's mother, Alice (King) Baldwin, survived him, and in 1622 gave a legacy to Anne, his daughter. The eldest son of Henry succeeding to the home-stead, at Dundridge, was Richard. Richard and his wife died childless, and Richard, by his will dated 1639, gave to Anne Baldwin, then Anne Bryant, and her son Richard, the lands conveyed by the deed hereafter.

Anne's grandfather, Henry, was the eldest son of Richard and Ellen Baldwin, of Dunbridge, and succeeded him there in 155 $\frac{2}{3}$. The Baldwins were an old family in the vicinity and the account of it there occupies over seventy-five pages in my volume, entitled the Baldwin Genealogy, and issued in 1881.

I am indebted to the following persons not named Bryan—to Charles Andrew Johnson, Esq., of New Orleans, La., and especially to Mr. N. G. Pond, of Milford, Conn.

THE BRYAN FAMILY OF MILFORD, CONN., AND LONG ISLAND.

I procured by purchase, in London, from among the papers of the descendants of William Penn who purchased lands in Bucks County, England, the following deed formerly belonging to the Baldwins.

The deed is endorsed on the back—

“ This deed of purchase by me, E. Baldwin, of the two houses at Wendover with a fine upon it.”

The signature of Alexander Bryan was no doubt affected by his health as he was a very intelligent and well educated man.

The grantee, E. Baldwin, was most likely Edward Baldwin, a second cousin of Richard, and of the Inner Temple, London. See pages 47-48 of the Baldwin Genealogy.

Benjamin Fenn, who witnessed it, married Sarah, first cousin of Edward Baldwin and second cousin of Richard Bryan. See pages 49-51 of the Baldwin Genealogy.

The premises described in it are no doubt the premises left to Anne, (Baldwin) wife of Alexander Bryan, and her son Richard by her uncle Richard Baldwin. See the will, pages 31-33 of the Baldwin Genealogy.

The name in the will of Richard Baldwin is Bryant and was originally written so in this deed, but in some instances the final t has been erased.

After a very careful examination of the name of the widow in possession as tenant I am quite certain the name is Widow Oryatt, but it is doubtful whether she was probably any relation of Thomas Offitt or Oviatt, of Milford, Conn., who apparently came from Nazing, Essex. (See Winter's Memorials of Nazing) in Ship Lion, in 1632. Yet see will of Alexander Bryan for name of Oviatt.

It is difficult to represent the contractions in this deed exactly. The larger horizontal lines over contractions should be curved.

Mr. Lambert, the historian of Milford, said that Alexander Bryan was from Ireland. Before I procured the deed following I had indentified him as connected with the Baldwins of Buckinghamshire, England, and had accidentally found in the parish records of Aylesbury, in that shire, the entry of the baptism of Alexander. Ante pp. 38 and 46.

I believe there is no foundation whatever for the statement that he was from Ireland. The Baldwin wills, the Bryan deed, and the records at Aylesbury, identify him beyond all question.

The name was an old one in the vicinity. In Hertfordshire, at the 23d and 25th Parliament (Edward 1st) Roger Bryan was a knight of the shire, and in 1277 lands were held in the parish of Bukhamough by William Brian and Robert Brian.

The deed was probably drawn in London and sent to Milford. The scrivener seems to have spelled the name Bryant—the final t being sometimes but not always erased.

1. Thomas Bryan¹ was of parish and county town of Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire. He had ch. at least—

2. Elizabeth, bapt. Nov. 2, 1600.
3. Alexander, bapt. Sept. 9, 1602. +
4. Frances, bapt. March 29, 1604.
5. Mary, bapt. April 19, 1606.

NOTE.—I traced Thomas no further back, but found entries which may be of interest to the name.

In Aylesbury—

Robert Bryan, buried Dec. 31, 1601.

In Aston Clinton, adjoining—

Ann Bryan, m. 1623, Samuel Baldwin.

In Ellesborough, near Aylesbury—

Robert Bryan, m. 1631, Bridgett H——, probably the one buried March 2, 1613. Their ch. bapt.,

1. Henry, Sept., 1632.
2. Frances, Sept. 14, 1634.
3. Jane, April 17, 1636.
4. Richard, Feb'y 1, 1641.

Buried 1640 — 19, Joan Bryan.

3. Alexander Bryan² Thomas.¹ (ante p. 38.) bapt. in Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England, Sept. 9, 1602, m. in England, Ann Baldwin⁴ Robert³ Henry² Richard Baldwin.¹

She d. in Milford, Feb'y 20, 1661, and he m. 2nd Susannah Fitch, widow of Mr. Samuel, of Hartford. Susannah was 1st wife of William Whiting, who with Lords Say and Brooke, and George Wyllys, bought the interest of the Bristol men in Piscataqua, about 1631 to 1633. From 1641 to his death he was treasurer of Conn. Colony, and in 1642 one of the magistrates. He was styled "The Worshipful William Whiting." She m. 2nd in 1650, Mr. Samuel Fitch, of Hartford, many years teacher there, by whom she had two sons. He d. 1659 and she m. 3rd 1663, Mr. Bryan. She d. at Middletown, Conn., July 8 1673, at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. Nathaniel Collins, of that place.

The first purchase of Milford was made of the Indians 12 Feb'y, 1639, and Alexander Bryan was one of the five trustees taking the title for the body of planters. The consideration was "6 coats, 10 blankets, 1 kettle, 12 hatchetts, 12 hoes, 2 dozen knives, and a dozen small glasses."

The land between Paugussett and the two mile Indian path was bought in 1655 for £5 in goods for Milford, by Ensign (Alexander) Bryan, Sergeant (Richard) Baldwin, and William East. The tract east of Indian River and extending to the New Haven purchase, and from Indian path to Oyster River south, to the foot path from Paugussett to New Haven north, was bought for Milford, 20 Dec., 1659, by Robert Treat and Ensign Bryan. The Indian Neck lying between the East River and the Sound was bought for the town by Ensign Bryan, 2 Jan'y, 1659-60, and a reservation in this last purchase was also bought by Ensign Bryan for the town, 12 Dec., 1661.

7 The first public house was kept by Henry Tomlinson, a weaver, The town were dissatisfied with him and brought a suit. Some of the complaints were that he sold "strong water, wine and beer at greater prices than was allowed, and kept a disorderly house," in "that he suffered young men and maids to come there and dance and play at shuffle board" (cards). April, 1644, the town after debate with Tomlinson, and thinking they could not build for him before harvest, the purchase of Richard Bryan's house was then proposed, Tomlinson's to be given in part exchange. "Ensign Bryan to judge of ye price of his house and lot and of the value of his sonnes house and lott." The trade was made fixing Richard Bryan's house at £68, by giving him Tomlinson's at £23, and £45 boot. The house stood on the old country road, ten or twelve rods west of the meeting house, and a public house was kept there from that time until about 1826. "June 26, 1655, Richard Bryan and William East bought ye house above named of ye town for ye same price of 68*l*, with the barn, house lot and all ye privileges except ye long table and bench which the town lett remain there gratis for the use and improvement of said Bryan."

Milford was in its early days quite a commercial place. The first merchants were Alexander Bryan, his son Richard, and William East. In 1640 "Ensign Bryan sent a vessel to the Bay '(Boston,)' laden with beaver, otter and other precious furs, and in return brought back such goods as were needed by the planters for their own use and for trade with the Indians." In May, 1650, the town granted him land (twenty feet by sixty) on which to set a warehouse, on the west corner of Broad Street and Dock Lane. The same year he built a wharf at the end of the lane, which he resigned to the town in 1653 on the condition that they should always keep it in repair. Before this Mr. William Fowler had a small wharf above this one and below his mill.

In Oct., 1655 "the town gave Richard Bryan leave to build a warehouse near unto his father's on the other side of the highway, thirty feet one way and eighteen feet another." Sergt. East had a warehouse between Ensign Bryan's and the home of Miles Merwin, the tanner. These three merchants in 1675 owned two brigs and a sloop. The brigs made voyages to the West Indies and the sloop to Boston. To the West Indies were sent staves, cattle, horses, beef, pork, flour, and corn meal, for which were returned rum, molasses and goods from Europe. Furs were sent mainly to Boston for dry goods.

In 1714, Samuel Clark, merchant, bought Richard Bryan's warehouse for £14. In 1690, a brig of 150 tons was built in Milford for Alexander Bryan, and in 1717 the Sea Flower was launched for Richard Bryan.

Mr. Thomas R. Trowbridge, Jr., in his scholarly and very interesting paper on the Ancient Maritime Interests of New Haven, says—

"Among the colonial merchants the contemporaries of Evance (1639-1656), and of Allerton (1639-1659), there are many deserving especial mention.

"Of these Ensign Bryan, of Milford, sent thence his ships to England, to the Azores, to Virginia, and as far east as Nova Scotia. For many years his credit stood so high that his notes of hand passed as current in Boston as bank notes do anywhere in our town."

Mr. Bryan was much more successful than the others named, as in 1656 Mr. Evance returned to England bankrupt, and in 1659 Mr. Allerton died, and says Mr. Trowbridge—"He died insolvent. His creditors were many, his debtors were few."

Mr. Trowbridge in 2 vol. N. H. Col. Hist. Soc., p. 201 says—

"In an interesting paper and one that shows extensive research, Mr. J. W. Fowler, of Milford, says:

"That in 1650 Mr. Bryan, merchant, built a warehouse 60 feet long on the corner of Broad Street and Dock Lane, which in 1653 he gave to the town on condition that they keep it in repair. Previous to this John Fowler had his mill and wharf near this place. Richard Bryan and William East had also warehouses near by, and from this they sent their vessels to West India and European ports, bringing their cargoes in return which were taken to New Haven for sale." "For many years the credit of the Milford merchants was so high that their notes of hand were as current as bank notes at a later period."

P. 200 he says of settlement of Milford—

"Treating the aboriginal inhabitants with comparative equity, they bought their lands and paid for them the large price of '6 coats and 2 blankets.' The town was noted for its commercial enterprise and adventurous spirit as soon as it was settled, and that same year Mr. Bryan sent his vessel to Boston loaded with beaver and otter furs, and in return brought back such goods as the settlement needed."

In 1640 a company was formed, commanded by Capt. John Astwood, who in 1640 m. Sarah (Bryan) Baldwin, widow of Sylvester, ante p. 42. William Fowler (who m. in 1670, ante p. 83, Elizabeth (Alsop) Baldwin, widow of Richard) was lieutenant, Alexander Bryan was ensign, and William East, the sergeant, who m. Mary Baldwin, sister of Richard and widow of Robert Plum. This company included probably all the planters and every male above sixteen years of age was required to have ammunition on hand.

Mr. Lambert says that Mr. Bryan had a liberal education which seems probable. He sometimes appeared as an attorney before the general court, and among other cases he defended Dept. Gov. Roger Ludlow in the slander case described (ante p. 407), where Thomas Staples received a judgment against Ludlow for reporting that Goodwife Staples was a witch.

Mr. Bryan made his will dated April 24, 1674(?) codicil dated May 22, 1679, and died between July 20 and Nov. 6, 1679.

Mr. Savage gives him the son Richard and says he probably had daus. Susanna who died at Middletown, 1670, and Joanna who m. April, 1612, Owen Morgan, unless one or both were widows of other sons who died before the testator. I am unable to satisfy myself of the existence of these daughters. His will names liberally his grand children and great grand children, who are identified as descendants of Richard. He leaves his gr. ch. Alexander Bryan £500, and land to his son (gr. gr. ch.) Alexander his right at Eaton's Neck, Long Island, to his gr. ch. Hannah Harrison, gr. ch. Sarah Fitch, w. of Samuel, gr. ch. Samuel Bryan, house, warehouse and use of lane to his gr. ch. Richard, Jr., house, barn, use of lane, etc., when 19, gr. ch. Richard, Francis and Abigail, cousin (likely other relation), Thomas Oviatt, Mr. Newton, to each of his gr. gr. ch., the ch. of Alexander Bryan £5 each. To gr. ch. John Maltby and Mary Maltby £5, and to the 3 ch. of his gr. ch. Harrison £5 each. To Milford £8, and to his son Richard all the rest of his property.

6. Richard, born in England.

6. Richard Bryan³ Alexander² Thomas,¹ as has already appeared was a very prominent citizen of Milford in every way, and preeminent in commerce.

Hon. Lucius M. Boltwood informs me that he m. Mary Pantry, dau. of William and Margaret, of Hartford, as appears from Vol. 2, p. 22, of the Hartford Probate Records will of William. The inventory was taken Nov. 14, 1649.

Richard Bryan m. 2nd July 15, 1679, Mary Wilmot, of New Haven, born Feb'y 16, 1647, dau. of Benjamin² Benjamin Wilmot¹ Benjamin,² m. widow Elizabeth Heaton. Mary, but not her husband seems to have been member of the church, the following ch. were baptized to Marie Bryan—April 25, 1680, Elizabeth Joseph, 1682, and again in 1685, Joseph to Mary Bryan.

When Mary (Wilmot) Bryan died is not known, but her husband m. 3rd Elizabeth Hollingsworth, widow of Richard, of Milford. Mr. Savage put this marriage in 1678. I know not his authority. These marriages have given me much trouble, my statements being quite contrary to Mr. Savage, and I at a long distance from records, but my early investigation is confirmed by Mr. N. G. Pond, of Milford, to whom I am constantly obliged in this sketch of the Bryans.

Mr. Savage is generally confused in his notice of Elizabeth Hollingsworth—see Bryan—Hollingsworth and Powell. See also his notice of Wilmot which gives the date but not the name of the Wilmot marriage. There is no reason to doubt, however, that she was, as he says, the daughter of Michael and Abigail Powell, of Dedham and Boston, born June 16, 1641, and m. 1st Aug. 23, 1659, Richard Hollingsworth.

Her marriage to Richard Bryan is further proved by a deed in Milford Records, from her sons reciting the fact.

She was the widow Elizabeth Bryan, of Milford, who m. Oct. 22, 1705, as her 3rd husband, the eminent Robert Treat, Governor of Connecticut, who d. July 12, 1710, in his 89th year, and she Jan'y 10, 1706. His first wife was Jane, daughter of Edmund Tapp, of Milford, and by her he had Joseph Treat, b. 1652, of whom hereafter.

The patent for Milford, from the General Court was dated May 25, 1685, and Mr. Richard Bryan was the second of seven persons named therein—Governor Robert Treat being the first.

Richard, merchant, bought Nov. 13, 1684, that part of Huntington, Long Island, called Eaton's Neck—eastward of Oyster Bay—of William Jones and Hannah his wife, daughter of Gov. Eaton, in their own right and for their brother Theophilus Eaton, Esq.

“Three sons of Richard Bryan” says Mr. Lambert, “settled on this land, Alexander, John and Ebenezer. Their descendants on Long Island are now numerous.”

Alexander Bryan owned a large track of land in Southington, says Mr. Lambert. Mr. Savage says, Richard was the richest man in town as was his father, leaving large estates partly in England (?) in Long Island, at New Haven, Elizabethton, N. J., Providence and Milford. I will add that I have found that Richard Bryan had children—

7. Alexander, 1651. +
8. Mary, 1654, m. 1st John Maltby. +
9. Hannah, Aug. 1, 1654, (twin) m. Rev. John Harriman. +
10. Sarah, April 24, 1657; no doubt d. y.
11. Samuel, bapt. 1659; b. April, 1660, says Mr. Pond. +
12. John, 1662, d. y.
13. Abigail, Nov. 22, 1663; no doubt d. y.
14. Richard, Oct. 8, 1666. +
15. Francois, Feb'y 13, 1668, m. Joseph Treat. +
16. Sarah, 1670, m. Oct. 1678, Samuel Fitch, who died early leaving an only child Sarah, and she m. 2nd about 1696, Mungo Nisbett, and d. in two years.
17. Abigail, Jan'y 12, 167 $\frac{1}{2}$; d. unm., 1698.
18. Elizabeth, 1679; no doubt d. y.
19. Joseph, Jan'y 15, 1682. +
20. Elizabeth, bapt. Nov. 1685; m. Dr. John Durand. +

7. Alexander¹ Richard,³ b. about 1651, d. Aug. 19, 1701. In 1692 and other years he was town clerk of Milford, Conn., as was his brother in 1698. Mr. Lambert says he lived for a while on Long Island. He m. Sybil,³ b. 1655, dau. of Rev. John Whiting,² of Hartford, and Sybill (Collins) of Cambridge, Mass., Rev. John² was b. 1635. Harvard College, 1653, and son of Hon. William, whose widow m. Alexander Bryan, father of Richard. He left proprieties in Milford and elsewhere. On account of some in Southampton, Long Island, his widow Sibylla had letters of adm., in New York, Sept. 27, 1701. Mr. Savage says she m. 1705, Hugh Gray, of Huntington, L. I., it is said, but after his death was in 1711, living in Milford.

21. Ann, Sept. 8, 1674.

22. Alexander, June 15, 1677, +

23. John, July 12, 1680. In 1714, lived at Huntington, L. I. May 9, 1710, of Long Island, deeds to Roger Newton and Ezihel Stone (Stow?) lands conveyed to him by his father Alexander. The Bryan's descended from this line lived largely on Long Island, but says Mr. Lambert in his history of Milford, some of them from Long Island resided in Milford during the Revolution.

24. Benjamin, Feb'y 2, 1690, +

25. Augustine, April 25, 1691; d. Aug. 8, 1705. According to Mr. Goodwin, his or her name was Augustinatha, but as he or she died young, the name is not of great consequence.

8. Mary⁴ Richard,³ b. 1654. She m. 1st Feb'y 28, 1666, John Maltby, of New Haven, Conn., about 1671, says the Dwight Genealogy. John Maltby came from Yorkshire and was lost at sea, 1676. Mr. Dwight says she m. 2nd Rev. Joseph Taylor, who was clergyman at Southampton, L. I., who d. April 4, 1682, age 31, and she m. 3rd Jan'y 30, 1690, John Howell, Jr., of Southampton, who d. March 8, 1692, aged 44, and she was thus left a widow the 3rd time when but 38.

In Howell's History of Southampton (2nd Ed. 1887,) p. 306, it is said that John Howell³ John² Edward,¹ b. Nov. 28, 1648, and d. March 8, 1692; m. 1st Martha, dau. of John White, who d. June 7, 1688, and he m. 2nd Mary, widow of Rev. Joseph Taylor, Jan'y 30, 1690, and had a dau. Sibyl by her, b. Aug. 9, 1691. On p. 306 it is said that that Edward Howell² Edward,¹ b. 1626 and d. 1699; m. 1st Mary, dau. of Rev. Robert Fordham, and 2nd Mary,³ dau. of Richard Bryan, of Milford, who on p. 431, is identified as widow of John Maltby, but is said to have m. 2nd Edward Howell,² and by that means the children of Maltby came to Southampton, who Dwight says came there on their mother marrying Rev. Joseph Taylor. One cannot tell by page 306 whether (if Mr. Howell's book is right) she had any children by Edward Howell. I cannot decide in such differences where I have made no examination of my own, but can add that on the distribution of the estate of Abigail³ Richard,¹ in 1698, one of her heirs was said to be her sister Mercy Howell. Whether there were two, Mercy and Mary, one of whom m. Edward and the other John Howell, or these are various blunders as to one person I cannot tell. All agree that Mary Maltby had ch.—

26. John Maltby, June 1, 1673. +

27. Mary Maltby, twin to John; m. Major Joseph Fordham. +

9. Hannah⁴ Richard,³ b. Aug. 1, 1654, m. Nov. 20, 1672, Rev. John Harriman, bapt. Jan'y 24, 1647, son of John¹ and Elizabeth, of New Haven. Rev. John was of Harvard College, 1667. He taught school at New Haven and preached there and at Wallingford, Conn., and removed as early as 1690 to Elizabethtown, N. J. He was employed by the government taking latitude of places between Mass. and Conn. He had in 1692 seven sons, but Mr. Savage names no more. Mr. Howell says he had three other ch. than these named below, in Elizabethtown. He d. Aug. 20, in his 58th year.

28. John, 1674.

29. Samuel, June 25, 1676.

30. Ann, July 5, 1678.

31. Mary, 1680.

32. Leonard, 1683.

33. Richard, 1685.

11. Samuel⁴ Richard,³ bapt. 1659, m. Dec. 25, 1683, Martha, dau. of Rev. John Whiting, of Hartford, and sister of Sybil. Apparently he lived partly in Milford and partly in Long Island. In his inventory at New York he is called Captain, April 28, 1698, 1671 and relict Martha. It appears also in Conn., that he d. 1698, had a widow Martha and ch. below—

34. Mary, 1685.

35. Martha, 1689, bapt. Aug. 1694; m. Feb'y 5, 1711, Joseph Smith. +

84. Martha, who m. John Miles. They had a dau. Martha Miles who m. Capt. Charles Pond. Capt. Charles and Martha Pond had at least chn.:

Adam, who had Charles Hobby, father of N. G. Pond, my valued correspondent, of Milford, Conn.

Martha m. A. V. H. Dewitt and had a dau. Martha, who m. David L. Baldwin, whose dau. Martha m. David Miles, a descendant of John and Martha Miles—a line of 7 Marthas.

42. Richard⁵ Richard⁴ Richard.³ I place him in this line of descent on the authority of Charles Andrew Johnson, Esq., of New Orleans, a descendant of whom I first learned in Milford as studying the records there. I think he must have been the Richard who on authority of Mr. Goodwin m. as his 1st wife, Mehitabel, dau. of Samuel Clark, also of Milford, and who on my own authority m. likely as his 2nd w., Sarah Treat, dau. of Joseph. The first two children were by Mehitabel and the others by Sarah. He was likely the Richard Bryan, Jr., who Mr. Lambert says settled not far from 1727 in North Milford, being the first who settled in that part of the town and for many years it was called Bryan's Farm. In 1750 it was so "well settled" that by that name it was voted school money.

85. Mehitabel, b. Aug. 15, 1721, m. about 1740, David Ingersoll. +

86. Richard. +

87. Francois, Aug. 1726, m. June 27, 1754, Samuel Treat, son of Samuel. +

88. Sarah, June 4, 1723, d. Oct. 26, 1739.

89. Ann, Feb'y, 1731, wife of John Treat, in 1784.

90. Mary, March 1736, wife of Zechariah Marks, in 1784.

61. Joseph⁵ Joseph⁴ Richard,³ b. in Milford, May 8, 1721, d. there April 3, 1751. He graduated at Yale College. He m. Mehitabel, dau. of Samuel Clark.

91. Joseph, bapt. July, 1746. +

92. Mary, bapt. Nov. 1749, buried in the Episcopal burying place in Stratford, under the following inscription: "In memory of Mary, daughter of Mr. Joseph and Mehitabel Bryn, who died Nov. 1, A.D. 1753, aged ten years and ten days.

93. Mehitabel, bapt. Nov., 1751.

71. Alexander⁶ Alexander,⁵ of Huntington, Long Island, (manor of Eaton). He died before his father who remembers in his will his son Ebenezer and asks him to pay one-third to his sisters. Alexander's will of Feb'y 24, 1758, remembers his said dans., his wife Phebe who with his brother Epenetus were his executors.

94. Ebenezer, who has the homestead, all lands on the point where his father lived. Dutch Island and the bogs at ——— Meadow—all other property to be divided to the sisters not named.

72. Augustine⁶ Alexander.⁵ His will dated Sept. 18, 1753, was proved in New York City, Jan'y 10, 1781. It must have been somewhat out of date. He makes his wife Deborah, brother Epenetus and David Pasco executors. He leaves his son Melancthon £60 and property to his three sons and six dans., when they came of age. Of all these nine ch. I know only—

95. Melancthon.

85. Mehitabel, who m. about March, 1740, David Ingersoll, of Milford; b. Sept. 4, 1720, son of Jonathan and Sarah. He d. Feb'y 14, 1742, in the 23rd year of his age. She d. June 7, 1798, in her 77th year (gravestone). They had one ch.—

96. David, Dec. 11, 1740, who m. March 9, 1768, Clement Treat, dau. of Lieut. Joseph. He d. June 10, 1774; his widow, May 18, 1817, and they had three children, Mehitabel, 1768; David Bryant, 1771; and Jonathan, 1778. His epitaph in Milford is interesting.

"In memory of David Ingersoll, Esq. His piety was early and unaffected. His benevolence pure and universal. As a civil officer—a member of God for good. In friendship, endearing and faithful. A pattern of conjugal and parental affection. In prospect of a better state he departed this life July 10, 1774, in the 34th year of his age. All on earth is shadow; all beyond is substance. The reverse is folly's creed. How solid all where change shall be no more."

86. Richard⁶ Richard⁵ Richard,⁴ m. Jan'y 13, 1742, Sarah Fowler, dau. of John and Susan Fowler. Supposed to be Richard, Jr., Ensign of 1st Co., Milford, in 1756; Lieut. of 2nd Co. in 2nd Regt. of the Colony, and afterwards referred to as Captain Richard Bryan.
